

Host Invitation Guide for Crossroads Kids Club Vision Dinner

Thank you for being apart of our host committee! Your role in inviting guests who share our mission is essential, and we want to make it simple and enjoyable. Here's a brief guide using the LAI framework—Linkage, Ability, and Interest.

Linkage: Start with Familiar Faces

Invite those you know well—family, friends, church members, neighbors, or even familiar faces like your doctor or hairstylist. Guests with a personal connection to you will feel more comfortable attending and can invite others who share their interest.

Ability: Every Gift Counts

We're looking for people who can contribute at any level. Consider inviting guests with a job or some financial means, even if they aren't major donors. Small gifts add up to make a big impact!

Interest: A Heart for the Mission

Think of those who are passionate about the Great Commission, especially among children. Look for Christ-followers who love kids and believe in reaching public schools with the message of Jesus.

Quick Checklist

- 1. Are they a Christ-follower?
- 2. Do they have a heart for the mission?
- 3. Do they have a job?

With your personal touch, our vision dinner will be a warm, inviting event where guests feel excited to be part of the Crossroads Kids Club mission. Thank you for helping us bring together a community that shares our values and vision! Let's make this a wonderful evening to remember!
